

Stage 1: Indication of Interest for April 2022 Real Estate Salesperson (RES) Examination

Have you recovered from COVID-19 in Singapore?

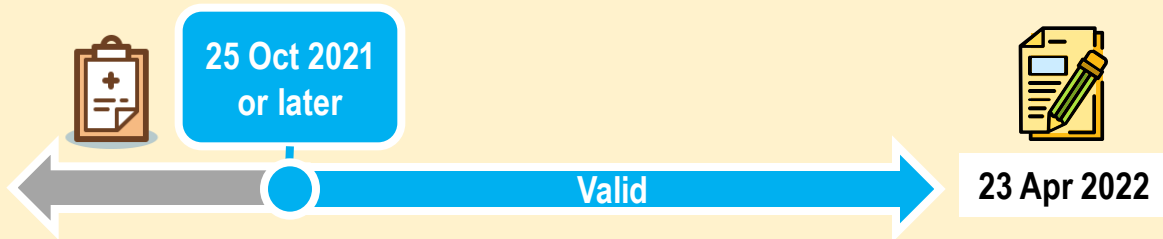

If you are partially or not vaccinated and was tested positive, you should have recovered from COVID-19 in Singapore within 180 days starting from the day of first positive result of any of the following tests in Singapore:

- Polymerase Chain Reaction (PCR) test,
- Healthcare-administered Antigen Rapid Test (ART) result for symptomatic persons, or
- Serology test result attributable to infection and not past vaccination.

What are the cut-off dates for the 180-day time frame?

- If you are sitting for the RES examination on 23 April 2022 only :
You must have obtained the first positive test result on or after 25 October 2021.

- If you are sitting for the RES examination on 23-24 April 2022 or on 24 April 2022 only:
You must have obtained the first positive test result on or after 26 October 2021.

